Goshen Art League Exhibit at Noble Coffee Roasters

SENSORY DELIGHTS: Artists Explore the Five Senses

Fourth Annual Exhibit

October 1 - 29, 2021

The Goshen Art League invites you to participate in an exhibit at Noble Coffee Roasters that centers around artwork on the theme of the senses.

Visual art can often be inspired by more than the sense of sight. In France, a madeleine de Proust is a common expression referring to a smell, taste, or sound which dredges up a long-lost memory. Similarly, can our senses act as muses? What senses have inspired you in a delightful way? What art is the result?

You are invited to submit works inspired by taste, sound, smell, feel, and of course, sight, for viewing at the annual Noble Coffee Roasters Cafe exhibit. This is a family-friendly public space, where folks enjoy coffee and/or a meal. Please submit accordingly.

Viewing hours will be Monday - Friday 6:30 am-6:30 pm and Saturday 7 am-6:30 pm.

Noble Coffee Roasters
3020 Route 207
Campbell Hall, NY 10916

No entry fees      No commissions      Goshen Art League members only

Pre-registration REQUIRED by emailing goshenartleague@gmail.com by:

Firm Deadline: Sunday, September 26 at midnight.

- There is a limit of two wall-hanging artworks that may be submitted by each artist.
- Artwork cannot be more than 16 x 20" (not including the frame).
- No sculptures or jewelry will be accepted because there is no place in the venue to display them.
- The venue has limited space to hang artworks. If more artwork is submitted than there is room in the venue, preference will be given to the artists who submit first, so it is recommended that you submit early. After submitting, be sure to look for a confirmation e-mail that will inform you if your submission was early enough to receive a spot in the show or if there is no room left. Early submissions are also helpful to us for the best chance of being used for show publicity.
